Commentary on the Forty Ḥadīth of Imām Nawawī Timeless Prophetic Gems of Guidance and Wisdom

The collection of the Forty Aḥādīth by Imām Nawawī has been known, accepted, and appreciated by Muslim scholars over the last seven centuries. Its significance lay in the fact that these selected forty-two Aḥādīth comprise the most essential and fundamental concepts of Islām. And these prophetic gems also reflect the minimum level of knowledge needed for each and every Muslim. This work provides the reader with a simple and practical exegesis of each Ḥadīth through the Qur’ān, other Aḥādīth, and commentary of various classical scholars. This work also provides discussion on many contemporary issues such that these Prophetic advices are connected with real-life situations and practical implications in current times. It is hoped that this commentary will lead one to better understand and practice these indispensable Aḥādīth in his or her life.
